

Dexia S.A.

Update

Key Rating Drivers

Support-Driven Ratings: Dexia S.A.'s ratings reflect Fitch Ratings' view that there is a high probability of additional support from Belgium (AA-/Negative) and France (AA-/Stable), if required, to complete the orderly wind-down of the bank. Such support is underlined by a Government Support Rating (GSR) of 'bbb+'. Dexia is the main operating entity of Dexia Holding SA/NV, which is about 53% owned by Belgium and 47% by France.

Strong Evidence of Support: Our view is based on Dexia's ownership, large funding guarantees from Belgium and France, and their ability to provide financial support. Dexia had about EUR38 billion of guaranteed debt outstanding at end-2023, and we expect guarantee use to remain below the EUR75 billion limit applicable since January 2022. The guarantee is granted by Belgium and France under a 53%/47% split.

No Retroactive Application of BRRD: Fitch continues to factor in state support for Dexia despite the implementation of the EU's Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive (BRRD). This reflects our view that the BRRD will not be applied retroactively to Dexia, as long as its orderly wind-down progresses consistently with plans agreed with the European Commission.

Withdrawal of Banking Licence: Dexia surrendered its banking licence in January 2024. This is part of the ongoing implementation of the ordered resolution plan validated by the European Commission in December 2012. Fitch believes that this step constitutes important progress in the orderly resolution.

Low Risk of Senior Bail-In: Fitch views the risk of senior creditor bail-in as low for Dexia. Operating as a non-bank further reduces risks of bail-in of senior unsecured debt as Dexia will no longer be subject to capital regulatory requirements, which could be breached and trigger a bail-in of the senior unsecured debt.

Deleveraging Progressing Well: Dexia's balance sheet was about EUR60 billion at end-2023, compared with about EUR362 billion at end-2011, when Dexia was placed in orderly wind-down. Total assets have significantly decreased over the past two years, notably because the amount of cash collateral posted has reduced as interest rates increased. Dexia has materially simplified its legal structure since the start of the orderly resolution, including the absorption of its last substantial subsidiary, Dexia Crediop, in September 2023.

No Viability Rating Assigned: Fitch does not assign a Viability Rating to Dexia because it cannot be meaningfully analysed as a viable entity in its own right and is no longer commercially active. Dexia is in orderly wind-down and relies on state guarantees for funding.

Rating Sensitivities

Factors that Could, Individually or Collectively, Lead to Negative Rating Action/Downgrade

Dexia's GSR and Issuer Default Rating (IDR) are sensitive to a weakening in Belgium or France's ability or propensity to provide additional support. We would likely downgrade Dexia's ratings, if both sovereigns' ratings are downgraded to the 'A' category. A material reduction in state ownership or state-guaranteed funding that is not a result of lower funding needs, leading to reduced incentive to provide additional support, would also be rating negative.

A material deviation from Dexia's wind-down plan agreed with the European Commission would lead to a negative rating action. Fitch expects this would likely trigger a fresh state aid review and heighten the likelihood of the authorities requiring more stringent measures, which could include senior creditors sharing some of the burden. However, this is not our central scenario.

Factors that Could, Individually or Collectively, Lead to Positive Rating Action/Upgrade

An upgrade of the GSR and IDRs would be contingent on the two countries demonstrating even greater support, which we view as unlikely. We could upgrade Dexia's ratings if France's sovereign rating is upgraded by two notches while Belgium's rating remains in the 'AA' category. However, this is unlikely given the recent downgrade of France's rating and the Negative Outlook on Belgium's rating.

We could also upgrade Dexia's Long-Term IDR, if it reduces the complexity and size of its balance sheet to well below the state-guaranteed debt size on a sustained basis, while the need for additional capital injection becomes remote.

Other Debt and Issuer Ratings

| Rating Level | Rating |
|----------------------------------|---------|
| Guaranteed debt | AA-/F1+ |
| Deeply subordinated Tier 1 notes | С |
| Senior preferred debt | BBB+ |

Dexia's Short-Term IDR of 'F1' is the higher of the two possible options mapping to a 'BBB+' Long-Term IDR. This is because we view the sovereigns' propensity to support as more certain in the near term than in the long term. We also assess the risk of either of the two sovereigns paying its direct obligations ahead of providing support to Dexia as low, and have not identified other potential impediments to the prompt flow of funds to Dexia.

The 'AA-'/'F1+' ratings of Dexia's guaranteed debt are aligned with Belgium and France's ratings, as long as the ratings of both are equal. Otherwise, the guaranteed debt ratings would be aligned with that of the lowest-rated guarantor. Both sovereigns are responsible for a share of the overall guarantee (several but not joint guarantee) and Fitch rates Dexia's state-guaranteed debt on a "first-dollar-of-loss" basis. The guarantee is unconditional, irrevocable and on first demand.

The decrease of the size of the funding guarantee is consistent with the decline in Dexia's balance sheet. The 5bp guarantee fee is increased by a conditional deferred commission that will progressively rise to 135bp by 2027, payable at the time of the liquidation of the group.

Dexia's senior preferred debt is rated in line with Dexia's Long-Term IDR. The 'BBB+(dcr)' Derivative Counterparty Rating is at the same level as Dexia's Long-Term IDR as the IDR is based on sovereign support and because derivative counterparties in France have no preferential status over other preferred senior obligations in a resolution.

Dexia's deeply subordinated Tier 1 notes' (FR0010251421) 'C' rating reflects the continued ban imposed by the European Commission on contractually non-mandatory coupon payments on these notes, and their poor recovery prospects. The securities are subordinated to the conditional deferred fee accrued from 2022.

High Probability of Support

Fitch considers that there is a high probability that additional support would be provided to Dexia by Belgium and France, if required, to complete the orderly wind-down of the company. Both sovereigns are the main shareholders of Dexia's parent Dexia Holding.

Our view on support is based on the ownership of Dexia, the large funding guarantees provided by Belgium and France of up to EUR75 billion, and both sovereigns' ability to provide financial support. The extension of the new guarantee from 2022 for 10 years did not change our view on support.

At end-June 2023, Dexia's assets represented a significant portion of the 2022 GDP (close to 10%) of Belgium, where the holding company is incorporated. Dexia's balance sheet represented less than 3% of France's 2022 GDP.

Fitch continues to factor in state support for Dexia, despite the implementation of the BRRD. This reflects our view that the BRRD will not be applied retroactively to Dexia, as long as its orderly wind-down progresses consistently with plans agreed with the European Commission.

Unless otherwise disclosed in this section, the highest level of ESG credit relevance is a score of '3'. This means ESG issues are credit neutral or have only a minimal credit impact on the entity, either due to their nature or the way in which they are being managed by the entity. Fitch's ESG Relevance Scores are not inputs in the rating process; they are an observation on the relevance and materiality of ESG factors in the rating decision. In issuing and maintaining its ratings and in making other reports (including forecast information), Fitch relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources Fitch believes to be credible. Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Ratings are not a recommendation to buy, sell, or hold any security. Ratings do not comment on the adequacy of market price, the suitability of any security for a particular investor, or the tax-exempt nature or taxability of payments made in respect to any securities. Such fees generally vary from US$1,000 to US$750,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent) per issue. In certain cases, Fitch will rate all or a number of issues issued by a particular insurer or guarantor, for a single annual fee. Such fees are expected to vary from US$1,000 to US$1,500,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent). The assignment, publication, or dissemination of a rating by Fitch shall not constitute a consent by Fitch to use its name as an expert in connection with any registration statement filed under the United States securiti

For Australia, New Zealand, Taiwan and South Korea only: Fitch Australia Pty Ltd holds an Australian financial services license (AFS license no. 337123) which authorizes it to provide credit ratings to wholesale clients only. Credit ratings information published by Fitch is not intended to be used by persons who are retail clients within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001.

Fitch Ratings, Inc. is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as a Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organization (the "NRSRO"). While certain of the NRSRO's credit rating subsidiaries are listed on Item 3 of Form NRSRO and as such are authorized to issue credit ratings on behalf of the NRSRO (see https://www.fitchratings.com/site/regulatory), other credit rating subsidiaries are not listed on Form NRSRO (the "non-NRSROs") and therefore credit ratings issued by those subsidiaries are not issued on behalf of the NRSRO. However, non-NRSRO personnel may participate in determining credit ratings issued by or on behalf of the NRSRO.
