PIERRE CREVITS WILL STEP DOWN AS CEO OF THE DEXIA GROUP AT THE END OF THE YEAR

On Monday 1 June 2026, the Board of Directors of Dexia Holding was informed of Pierre Crevits' decision to accept the offer made to him to join the Executive Board of the National Bank of Belgium on 1 December 2026 as an Executive Director and, consequently, to leave Dexia.

Under the leadership of its Chairman, Gilles Denoyel, whose term of office was renewed by the Annual General Meeting on 27 May, the Board of Directors will ensure the necessary stability and will use the next six months to launch a robust recruitment process, in close collaboration with the Belgian State which, as Dexia's majority shareholder, proposes the CEO. The Board has full confidence in the ability of the strong management team, led by Pierre, over the next six months to finalise the preparations for the transition to a new operating model, scheduled for 1 January 2027, and then to continue the resolution process alongside the new CEO.

The Board of Directors wishes to express its gratitude to Pierre Crevits for his commitment and for the enthusiasm with which he has pursued the implementation of the orderly resolution plan. Under the leadership of Pierre Crevits, who was appointed CEO in May 2020, the management team has significantly reduced the size of Dexia and the associated risks, and has successfully implemented numerous simplification measures: the withdrawal of the banking licence and the rationalisation of the accounting framework as of 1 January 2024, as well as the transition to the new operational model, are notable examples of this.

The Board of Directors congratulates Pierre on his appointment and wishes him every success in his new role.
